

ABSTRACT

TOPIC: DRUGS ISSUE AND NEW APPROACHES IN POLICE TRAINING IN COMBATING DRUGS

Drugs consumption and trafficking is a social problem both in Burundi and in the world. Burundi Government has laws aiming at fighting against this scourge. It also works with the international community in coping with drugs.

Burundi Police whose missions includes fighting against drugs trafficking, drugs plantation, drugs sale, drugs transport and consumption is very committed to coping well with this issue.

One of the strategies to do it is by training all the police categories in their respective structures to identify the types of drugs, its characteristics, its consequences, user strategies and the good practices to combat drugs.

Burundi Police equally cooperates with sub regional and regional police structures in knowledge and experience share while tracking international drugs trafficking networks.
